Freedom Jazz Youth Workshop

Are you between the ages of 11 and 18?

Are you interested in Jazz music?

Would you like to learn from professional Jazz musicians?

As part of the Freedom Jazz Weekender which celebrates its 2009 festival activities, we are offering 15 youths a chance to take part in a Jazz Workshop. Topics concentrate on exploring jazz styles, standard repertoire and beginning improvisation. The band brings together students from a variety of backgrounds and skill levels to create a fun and motivating introductory jazz experience. The Jazz Workshop is open to saxophone, trumpet, trombone, piano, bass, guitar and drums.

In a fun three hour session, five professional jazz musicians will teach you instrument techniques, the basics of jazz music, a brief history of jazz and two songs. You will then perform those songs live on stage at the Capri Theater.

The workshop will be held on Saturday, November 14th at the Capri Theater. Students must be at the theater at 10:30 am for classroom assignments. Workshops will start at 11 am, and you will be on stage at 1 pm performing, ending at 2:00 pm. Selected students will later participate in a live performance during the Jazz Night concert at the Capri Theater.

For each workshop, we would like up to 15 youths, as follows:

- 1 vocalist
- 1 trumpet
- 1 bass
- 1 trombone
- 2 alto sax
- 2 tenor sax
- 1 drums
- 1 piano
- 2-4 'other' (guitar, flute)

Please bring your instrument with you. Piano, drums will be provided.

To be considered for the Workshop, you must have played your instrument for at least a year and be reasonably competent.

To apply for a seat in the workshop, please contact Jeffrey L. Keys at 612-384-2830 or email: andrea\_jeffrey.1@netzero.net for an application form. Registration fee is $10.00 per workshop, per student.
